JASWANT SINGH, J. (Oral)

The petitioner, while working as Principal with the Guru Nanak National College for Women, Nakodar, District Jalandhar was placed under suspension vide order dated 15.04.2016, contemplating disciplinary proceedings. The suspension order was challenged before the Educational Tribunal, Punjab, wherein an interim order dated 02.06.2016 was passed, staying the suspension order with directions for resumption of her duties as Principal. The aforesaid interim order was modified vide order dated 28.07.2016, whereby the financial powers of the Principal were permitted to be exercised by the other employee-Smt. Madhu Bala.

The present contempt petition was filed with the allegation that the petitioner was not permitted to re-join inspite of clear-cut directions.

At the time of hearing, learned Counsel for the parties in the light of the replies filed are agreed that the present contempt petition has become infructuous as the petitioner was permitted to rejoin as Principal on 06.06.2016 and also that learned Tribunal vide order dated 08.11.2016 has disposed of the pending petition, challenging the suspension order.

In view of the above, no further action is warranted.

Accordingly, the present contempt petition stands dismissed as infructuous.
