DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Reply has been filed by learned counsel for the respondents in Court and the same is taken on record.

On the basis of the reply, learned counsel for the respondents submits that amount has been released but some delay was caused due to the procedure. He submits that there was no intention to cause the delay.

Since the compliance of the order has been made and payments have been released, the present contempt petition is disposed of accordingly.

However, for causing the delay, the petitioner is held entitled for cost of ₹50,000/-.
