DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions from Ashwani Kumar, Superintendent of Police, submits that necessary compliance of the order has been made, whereas learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the benefits are still to be released to the petitioners.

Since compliance of the order has been made, nothing survives in the present contempt petition.

Respondents are directed to release the necessary payment in pursuance of approval given by the respondent-department preferably within a period of six weeks.

In case the amount is not released to the petitioners, they are at liberty to move application for revival of the contempt petition.

Disposed of.
