DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that necessary compliance has already been made as is clear from order dated 16.08.2017. The case was adjourned on request of learned counsel for the petitioner to get instructions but the counsel for the petitioner is not present.

Since the compliance of the order has been made, nothing survives in the present contempt petition and, therefore, the same is disposed of accordingly.

In case the petitioner is aggrieved in any manner, he is at liberty to move the application for revival of the contempt petition.
