CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr.Shailender Jain, Sr. Advocate with Mr.Rakesh Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr.Prateek Mahajan, Advocate for respondent No.1.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the long pendency of execution application, seeking execution of the judgment and decree passed by this Court in RFA No.505 of 1999 decided on 1.4.1999, which has been upheld up to the Hon'ble Supreme Court, petitioner-land owner has approached this Court by way of present revision petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, seeking direction to the executing court for early disposal of the execution application.

Notice of motion was issued.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

A bare perusal of numerous zimni orders, reproduced from pages 6 to 9 of the paper-book, in addition to other zimni orders Annexures P-4 to P-6, would make it crystal clear that the learned executing court has not appreciated the plight of the petitioner in the correct perspective, while not ensuring expeditious disposal of the execution application.

It has gone undisputed before this Court that land of the petitioner was acquired way back in the year 1988 and he is still pursuing the litigation despite the lapse of a long period of three decades to get his due. In such a situation, any further delay is not at all warranted.

Keeping in view the totality of facts and circumstances of the case noticed hereinabove, instant revision petition is disposed of, with a direction to the executing court to ensure early disposal of the execution application and in any case within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.

With the above-said observations made and directions issued, the present revision petition stands disposed of.
