RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Feeling aggrieved against the long pendency of her divorce petition (Annexure P-1), petitioner has approached this Court by way of present revision petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a direction to the learned Family Court to decide the divorce petition pending between the parties at an early date.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

Instant revision petition is being disposed of without issuing notice to the other side, because nature of order which is going to be passed is not likely to cause any kind of prejudice to the respondent.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner, after careful perusal of record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that present revision petition deserves to be disposed of with a direction to the learned Family Court to decide the pending divorce petition filed by the petitioner as early as possible.

Accordingly, present revision petition is disposed of with a direction to the learned Family Court to make an endeavour to decide the divorce petition (Annexure P-1) expeditiously. Learned counsel for petitioner has apprised this Court that evidence of the plaintiff has been concluded and now the case is fixed for defendant's evidence. If that is so, the learned Family Court shall decide the divorce petition as early as possible and in any case within a period of six months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present revision petition stands disposed of.
