RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the respondents-defendants submits that since civil suit itself has been decided, granting alternative relief to the plaintiff for refund of earnest money and feeling aggrieved against the judgment and decree of learned trial court, defendants-respondents have already filed their first appeal, present revision petition does not survive any further and the same may be disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous.

In view of the abovesaid fact situation, present revision petition is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous. However, on the request made by learned counsel for the petitioner, liberty is granted to the petitioner to get present revision petition revived, if necessity arises.
