

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR-5380-2017

Date of Decision:- 16.08.2017

Anita Devi and others

.....Petitioners

Versus

Balwan Singh and others

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RITU BAHRI

Present: Mr. Jitender Dhanda, Advocate for the petitioners.

RITU BAHRI, J. (Oral)

Present petition has been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for setting aside of impugned order dated 28.07.2017 (Annexure P-2), passed by learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Hisar whereby the evidence of the petitioners-claimants has been closed.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have already examined six witnesses and only one effective opportunity is liable to be given to conclude the entire evidence by examining one witness, namely, Nihal Singh, who is an eye witness of the accident in question.

Heard.

Taking into consideration the facts of the present case and the explanation put-forth, the instant revision petition is allowed. Order dated 28.07.2017 (Annexure P-2), learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Hisar, is hereby set aside. The Tribunal is directed to grant one effective opportunity to the petitioners-claimants to examine the above-said witness.

August 16, 2017
naresh.k

(RITU BAHRI)
JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned	Yes
Whether reportable	No