REKHA MITTAL, J.(Oral)

Counsel for the petitioner would state that the present petition may be disposed of but without prejudice to rights of the petitioner to raise all available pleas before the trial Court. It is further prayed that any findings recorded by the Courts below while disposing of the matter with regard to grant of interim injunction should not cause prejudice to rights of the petitioner at the time of final disposal of the suit on merits.

In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to raise all available pleas before the trial Court. Any observation made by the Courts below touching merits of the case while disposing of application/appeal for interim injunction shall not cause prejudice to the petitioner at the time of final disposal of the suit on merits.
