

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

230

CR-8468-2016 (O&M)
Date of decision: 27.11.2017

MAMTA

...Petitioner

Versus

DALIP BEHAL

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE REKHA MITTAL

Present : Mr. Akshay K. Jindal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sagar Aggarwal, Advocate for
Mr. Ashit Malik, Advocate for the respondent.

REKHA MITTAL, J. (Oral)

Counsel for the respondent would state that as the petition for divorce filed by the respondent husband has since been decided (dismissed in default) by the trial Court, the present petition may be disposed of having been rendered infructuous.

Counsel for the petitioner would state that the petition may be disposed of but without prejudice to right of the petitioner to recover arrears of maintenance pendente lite, allowed by the Court.

In view of the above, the petition is disposed of.
