

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

134

CR No.8759 of 2017

Date of Decision:14.12.2017

Nishi Bhargava

...Petitioner

Versus

Dakshin Haryana Bijli Vitran Nigam and others ...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Amit Singla, Advocate for the petitioner.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J.(Oral)

Plaintiff-petitioner is in revision petition against order dismissing the application for amendment of the plaint.

Plaintiff had filed a suit for injunction on 10.10.2012. During the pendency of the suit, she was served with another bill for consumption of electricity. She now wants to challenge the aforesaid bill by way of amendment. The learned trial Court after considering the stage of the case has dismissed the application.

Taking into consideration the aforesaid facts, this Court also does not find any good ground to interfere with the impugned order.

Hence, this revision petition is dismissed.

14.12.2017
sheetal

(ANIL KSHETARPAL)
JUDGE

Whether Speaking/Reasoned: Yes/No
Whether Reportable : Yes/No