Versus

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDIP AHLUWALIA

Present : Mr. Sansar Kundu, Advocate

SUDIP AHLUWALIA, J. (ORAL)

CRM No.23917 of 2015

For the reasons mentioned in the application, the delay of 105 days in filing the present appeal, is hereby, condoned.

Application is accordingly disposed off.

CRM No.35886 of 2015

The applicant/appellants are permitted to place on record the copies of their Arms Licences (Annexures A-1 to A-3).

Application is accordingly disposed off.

CRA-S No.3284-SB of 2015

Ld. Counsel for the appellants submits that the appellants were acquitted of all the offences in the Ld. Trial Court. But the arms seized from them were directed to be confiscated, whereas they ought to have been returned to them being licensed owners.

The appellants have thereafter in compliance of the earlier order passed by this Court on 24th October, 2017 placed on record the copies of their relevant Arms Licences.

Ld. Counsel for the State though seeks an opportunity to verify the genuineness of the same but it would be appropriate to refer the appellants to the authority concerned to verify and to take follow up action.

In the circumstances, the present appeal is disposed off with a direction upon the State to verify the Arms Licences relied upon by the appellants, and in case the same are found to be genuine and relatable to the case property involved, then the same may be returned to the appellants within a fortnight after such verification.
