* * * *

The present petition is by CCS Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar against award dated 2.4.1996 passed by Industrial Tribunal-cum-Labour Court, Hissar reinstating respondent-Jagwant Singh with continuity of service and other consequential benefits with full back wages from 27.11.1990 i.e. the date of demand notice. While admitting the case on July 2, 1997, it was observed “The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the respondent-workman has been permitted to join duty. Subject to that, the payment of back wages is stayed.”

Consequently, respondent-workman though was reinstated but by virtue of the bifurcation of CCS Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar to Lala Lajpat Rai University of Veterinary & Animal Sciences, Hisar (for short 'LUVAS'), he was transferred from CCS Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar to LUVAS. He is stated to have retired from service w.e.f. 31.8.2016 from the post of Tractor driver.

The only dispute left was regarding the back wages from 27.11.1990 to 2.7.1997 (the date of admitting the writ petition). Learned counsel for LUVAS had stated that as a gesture of good will, they are prepared to pay the back wages for the said period. The respondent-workman present on 23.2.2017 had stated that he is prepared to accept the amount for the said period.

Learned counsel for LUVAS today has pointed out that the amount of ₹ 78,000/- for the period 27.11.1990 to 2.7.1997 has been paid to the respondent-workman vide cheque No. 308219 dated 31.3.2017 drawn at IDBI Bank. This has been endorsed by Mr. HPS Bhinder, Advocate, counsel representing the respondent-workman. In the said background, learned counsel for LUVAS states that the present writ petition now be dismissed as infructuous.

Dismissed as infructuous.

Copy of the order be sent/supplied to learned counsel/parties.
