Versus

State of Punjab and others

--Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. Atul Goyal, Advocate for the petitioner.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C seeking issuance of directions to the official respondents to mark an inquiry against respondents no.7 and 8 as they are allegedly violating certain interim directions passed by the Civil Judge (Jr. Divn.), Samrala issued on 30.11.2016.

Pleadings on record would indicate that the grievance of the petitioner is pertaining to possession of a certain chunk of land. As per counsel, civil proceedings having been instituted before the competent court even a status quo order has been passed. Argument raised is that the matter is subjudice and respondents no.7 and 8 would have no authority in law to interfere.

Having heard counsel for the petitioner at length and having perused the pleadings on record, this Court is of the considered view that such matter would not require any intervention in exercise of powers of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C.

Concededly civil proceedings have been initiated and with regard to the same very parcel of land.

There is stated to be an injunction order already passed. This Court would not go into the merits of the case. If it is the case of the petitioner that such injunction is being violated, it is always open for him to take recourse of the remedy as available in accordance with law.

Disposed of.
