CRM-12614 of 2017

Annexures P5 to P7 are taken on record subject to just exceptions.

Application is disposed of.

CRM-M-1273 of 2017

The petitioners seek protection of their life and liberty at the hands of respondents No. 4 to 8. It is submitted that petitioner No.1 was married to respondent No.4-Tilak Raj on 02.012.2014. A child was born out of this wedlock. Allegations of harassment, ill-treatment and torture at the hands of respondents No. 4 to 8 were levelled. As per the averments in the petition no action was taken by the police authorities. It was thus prayed that action should be taken against the said respondents.

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It is not in dispute that FIR No. 22 dated 13.02.2017 under Sections 323, 498-A, 406, 506 IPC has since been registered at Women Police Station, Ambala, against respondents No. 4, 6 and 7. Final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C./challan has been presented against the said respondents. Therefore, no further orders are called for in this respect.

Learned counsel for the petitioners however submits that after registration of FIR No.22 dated 13.02.2017 when the petitioners went to village Nagla for recovery of the dowry articles along with the police officials, they were attacked by the in-laws of petitioner No.1. Representation dated 05.04.2017 (Annexure P6) in this respect was submitted. However, no action is being taken by the police authorities.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case as above but without expressing any opinion on the merits thereof, this petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to look into the representation dated 05.04.2017 (Annexure P6) and take appropriate action as may be/if any, required, in accordance with law.

None of the observations made here-in-above shall be construed to be a reflection on merits of the case and shall have no bearing thereon.

As the petition has been disposed of, this application for impleading respondent No.3A has been rendered infructuous. Disposed of accordingly.
