CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present : Mr. Deepak Goyal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. D.S. Virk, DAG Punjab.

Ms. Manpreet Kaur, Advocate, for respondents No.2 and 3.

A.B. Chaudhari, J. (Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.9 dated 20.01.2017 registered under Sections 452/324 and 307 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station City Sunam, District Sangrur and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same on the basis of compromise (Annuxure P-2).

Learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned counsel for respondents No.2 and 3 state that parties have arrived at a compromise. This Court had made an order dated April 20, 2017 directing the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate to record the statements in view of the compromise that has been arrived at between the parties and verify that whether the same is genuine or not. Now, there is a report received from the Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Sunam showing that the statements of the parties have been recorded and the compromise that has been arrived at between the parties is genuine and without any pressure, coercion of undue influence.

Looking to the nature of offences registered in the FIR, I think, parties should be allowed to compound/compromise the offences in order to live in peace and harmony, however, subject to the payment of non refundable costs by the petitioner in the sum of ₹5,000/- with the office of Senior Superintendent of Police, Sangrur within a period of 15 days from today, which shall be forfeited to the State government.

In that view of the matter, FIR No.9 dated 20.01.2017 registered under Sections 452/324 and 307 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station City Sunam, District Sangrur is quashed by way of compounding/compromise along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom.

In case of failure of payment of costs as aforesaid, the FIR in question shall stand automatically revived and the trial will continue against the petitioner.

Disposed of.
