A. B. CHAUDHARI, J. (ORAL)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

In FIR No.94 dated 11.10.2016 registered under Sections 302, 323, 148 & 149 at Police Station Sherpur, District Sangrur, the petitioner who is a woman was arrested and since then she is in jail.

The case of the prosecution as against the petitioner is as under:

“Prima-facie from the story of the prosecution the only inference is that the applicant had pelted the stones upon Naranjan Singh, the associate of the deceased and under these circumstances when there is simple injury on the person of Naranjan Singh injured, the applicant cannot be assumed to be straightway involved in the commission of alleged offence.”

In view of the above, I think the petitioner would be entitled to grant of concession of bail. The petition for bail stands allowed accordingly.

Bail to the satisfaction of the concerned CJM/Duty Magistrate.
