Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present: Mr.D.R. Punia, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. N.K. Banka, DAG, Punjab.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

The prayer in the instant petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner-Kirandeep Kaur @ Nanu in FIR No.179 dated 30.12.2013 for the offence under Sections 376 & 506 IPC, registered at Police Station Meharban, District Ludhiana.

It is contended that during the pendency of the petition it was stated that father of the prosecutrix had agreed to marry his daughter with the petitioner, the petitioner was ordered to be released on interim bail on his furnishing adequate bail bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court. Thereafter, on his release, the petitioner married the prosecutrix on 15.5.2017. Both the parties are present in Court today along with the father of the prosecutrix, who admits the factum of marriage. In view of these facts, it is argued that the petitioner should be admitted to regular bail.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties.

In view of the fact that the prosecutrix has already married the petitioner, the petition is allowed and interim order dated 28.04.2017 is hereby made absolute admitting the petitioner to regular bail subject to the condition that the petitioner shall furnishing fresh bail bonds/sureties to the satisfaction of Trial Court, Ludhiana.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is at liberty to place this order on the record of the trial Court.
