The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No.148 dated 06.11.2016, for the offence under Sections 365, 354, 506 and 149 IPC, registered at Police Station Dugri, Ludhiana (Annexure P-1) along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 17.04.2017 (Annexure P-2).

It was alleged by the complainant that petitioner along with two persons have forcibly taken away her husband by putting him in their car with an intention to keep in a secret place. When she confronted, the one of them on instructions from the petitioner has pushed her and torn her clothes. On this basis, FIR has been registered.

During the pendency of the trial, the matter has been resolved between the petitioners and respondent No.2-Neelam, vide compromise dated 17.04.2017 (Annexure P-2).

In compliance with the order dated 28.04.2017 passed by this Court, the parties got recorded their statements before the trial Court. Report from the JMIC, Ludhiana, has been received in this regard dated 18th May, 2017. complainant-Neelam and accused-petitioner were recorded to the effect that they have compromised the matter and Neelam-complainant has no objection if the present FIR is quashed against the accused/petitioner. Statements of accused-petitioner were also recorded to the same effect. In view of separate statements of the parties, the Court is satisfied that the compromise is valid and genuine one.

Consequently, in view of the status report and the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Madan Mohan Abbot vs. State of Punjab 2008(2) RCR (Criminal) 429, the law laid down by the Full Bench of this Court in the case of Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another 2007(3) RCR (Crl.) 1052, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose would be served in prolonging the litigation.

Accordingly, FIR No.148 dated 06.11.2016, for the offence under Sections 365, 354, 506 and 149 IPC, registered at Police Station Dugri, Ludhiana (Annexure P-1), is quashed along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom qua the petitioner.

The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
