Act, which have been added in the FIR during investigation.

Notice of motion has been issued. Learned State counsel has appeared and contested the instant petition.

CRM-M-14454-2017

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and gone through the record.

As per the prosecution version, a candidate bearing No.1510834447 with name Narender Kumar was appearing in the examination for the post of Clerk on 11.12.2016 (Evening Shift) and while he was in the room, the Invigilator found a small chit of answer key for Set-A in carbon copy form. The petitioner is stated to have been shown himself as fake employee of a jammer company and conspired with the other co-accused.

The petitioner has been in custody since 13.12.2016. He is not required for any investigation or interrogation purposes as he is in judicial custody. The trial of the case will take long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of Rs.50,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
