KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

In present case, petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. was filed for directing respondents No. 1 to 3 to register FIR against respondent No. 4 for committing cheating and fraud by executing sale deed of plot and not handing over possession to the petitioner.

The learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Sukhwinder Singh, states that FIR in this case has already been registered, regarding which reply has already been filed. Therefore, it is pleaded that petition has become infructuous.

In view of the matter, petition is disposed of as infructuous. However, the State is directed that without being influenced by any order, passed by this Court, the police should arrive at the truth of the matter and file the challan only, if some offence is made out from the evidence collected by it.
