

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-15842 of 2017
Date of Decision: 01 June, 2017

Mukesh ...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana ..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FATEH DEEP SINGH

Present: Mr. Rajesh Bansal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Munish Sharma, AAG, Haryana.

FATEH DEEP SINGH, J.

The allegations against the petitioner in this anticipatory bail application under Section 438 Cr.P.C are that on the day of occurrence on 20.01.2017 the petitioner along with others were at a marriage function and during the course of celebration a quarrel ensued between the complainant Vikram and petitioner side leading to injuries to the complainant.

The petitioner's counsel has produced complainant Vikram Singh son of Raghubir Singh, who has been identified by Investigating Officer Ajmer Singh Police Station, Assandh, District Karnal to be the complainant. The factum of compromise between the complainant and petitioner has been duly supported by the complainant himself and who has not opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner. More so, in the light of submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the medical evidence does not support that it was life threatening injuries and learned State counsel could not show to this Court how and by what means the injuries so inflicted falls within the ambit of injuries dangerous to life together with the fact that compromise would bring about harmony between the parties, the present petition stands allowed. In the event of arrest of the petitioner, he be admitted to bail to the satisfaction of the arresting officer/Investigating Officer and that he will abide by the conditions as envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
