RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellant, at the very outset, fairly states that he has got telephonic instructions to say that since the parties have already arrived at an amicable settlement, appellant is no more interested in pursuing this appeal any further. He submits that let the present appeal be dismissed as not pressed. However, since he is not having any written instructions, liberty may be granted to the appellant to get this appeal revived within a period of three months, if necessity arises.

In view of the above statement made by learned counsel for the appellant, present appeal is dismissed as not pressed, however, with liberty as prayed for.
