...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present:- Mr. Kunal Dawar, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. P. P. Chahar, DAG, Haryana.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J.(ORAL)

This petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No. 144 dated 16.03.2015, under Sections 498-A/406/34 IPC, registered at Police Station Sector 7, Faridabad, District Faridabad (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom in view of the compromise entered into between the parties.

In brief, the facts of the case are that the petitioner No.1 got married with respondent No.1 on 03.07.2014 as per Hindu rites and ceremonies. A dispute arose between them due to their different temperaments. Above referred FIR was got registered by respondent No.2 against petitioner No.1 her husband, and petitioners No.2 & 3 her father-in-law and mother-in-law respectively. Now with the intervention of respectable persons, the matter has been amicably compromised between the parties and a divorce petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act has been filed (annexure P-2), apart from other terms and conditions detailed therein.

Keeping in view the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise, they were directed to appear before the trial Court for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In pursuance of the direction, a report in has been received from the Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Faridabad stating that the compromise arrived at between the parties is without any pressure or coercion from any one and the same appears to be genuine one.

Mr. P.P. Chahar, DAG, Haryana, on instructions from the Investigating Officer admits the factum of compromise and submit that in case the parties have indeed settled their dispute, they would have no objection to the quashing of the FIR, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

I have heard learned counsel for the rival parties and gone through the record.

In a decision, based on compromise, none of the parties is a loser. Rather, a compromise not only brings peace and harmony between the parties to a dispute, but also restores tranquility in the society. After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble

Supreme Court in Gian Singh Versus State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Cr.) 543, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 144 dated 16.03.2015, under Sections 498-A/406/34 IPC, registered at Police Station Sector 7, Faridabad, District Faridabad (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same are quashed qua the petitioners.

The petition stands disposed of.
