.... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL.

Present: Mr. Sunil Saharan, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vikramjit Singh, Addl. Advocate General, Haryana.

for respondent No.2.

ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 285 dated 24.11.2014 under Sections 420, 406, 120-B IPC registered at Police Station Bilaspur, District Yamuna Nagar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner had earlier been granted anticipatory bail on the condition that she will pay the outstanding amount to the complainant. Upon the failure of the petitioner to pay the outstanding amount due to her poor financial condition, the order granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner was cancelled on 26.07.2016. The petitioner was directed to be released on interim bail subject to her making payment of the entire amount by the coordinate Bench of this court on 26.05.2017.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further contends that the petitioner has handed over a sum of ₹ 50,000/- to the complainant in the Court today. He further states that financial condition of the petitioner is such that she cannot make any further payment at this stage. He also states that petitioner shall tender the outstanding amount before the trial Court within a period of three months from today.

Heard.

The petitioner has already paid a sum of ₹ 50,000/-. The financial condition of the petitioner is stated to be poor. She had earlier been granted anticipatory bail. It would, therefore, be in the interest of justice, that the order dated 26.05.2017 granting interim bail to the petitioner is made absolute.

Consequently, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed. The petitioner, namely, Raj Dulari is ordered to be released on regular bail on her furnishing requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate. However, the petitioner shall deposit the outstanding amount in the trial Court within a period of three months from the date of receipt of the certified copy of the order. She shall also abide by the conditions envisaged under Section 439 Cr.P.C.
