I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Deputy Advocate General, Haryana appearing for the respondent-State and have gone through the record.

The FIR has been got registered by one Dalbir Singh. The main allegation is that Bablu and Jitender knocked the door of his house at 9.30 p.m. and they after catching hold of him made him to sit in the car. Then they sped away the car and took him to the wine shop where one boy Ravi also associated them and then they went towards the fields, where his all clothes were got put off and Ravi caught hold of him and made him grounded and Bablu started beating him with sticks, Danda and with fist and kick blows and while calling him 'Chamar', he continued saying "Dedh, Chamar". Then again they went to the wine shop and bought liquor and beer. Then all of them returned to the fields and again started beating him.

The petitioner has been in judicial custody since 1.5.2017. He is no more required for interrogation or investigation purposes. The trial of the case will take long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Therefore, keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹40,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
