Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Amritsar and another

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV NARAIN RAINA

Present: None for the petitioner.

Mr. Akhilesh Vyas, Advocate for the respondent.

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (ORAL)

The award dated 16.02.1995 passed by the Presiding Officer, Labour Court, Amritsar in reference no.106 of 1994 is in favour of the workman respondent No.2. He was awarded reinstatement with continuity of service and full back-wages on a declaration that the termination order was illegal and void. In the present case, the petitioner-society assails the impugned award on the grounds taken in the memorandum. As a matter of fact, on 19.01.1998 this Court while issuing notice declined stay specifically by recording "prayer for stay declined". As a result of the order the workman continued to serve and was paid his back-wages and presently stands superannuated on 30.04.2013. This renders the petition infructuous.

Dismissed as such.
