Counsel for the respondent has apprised the Court that as the present petition has been preferred against an interim order passed by the Court below, the present petition has been rendered infructuous as the main case of which the present petition is an off-shoot has already been decided by the trial Court.

Counsel for the petitioners in view of statement made by counsel for the respondent would state that the petition may be disposed of but without prejudice to rights of the petitioners to raise all available pleas by taking recourse to appropriate remedy against the final order passed by the Court below.

Ordered accordingly.
