Petitioner, namely, Reena Devi, who is present in the Court today states that she is 24 years old and that her parents want to marry her somewhere else against her wishes. On questioning by this Court, she has disclosed that she wants to marry a boy of her own choice.

The filing of the present petition shows that it is only a pressure tactics. If the parents want to marry the petitioner somewhere else, she can refused to marry there and she has liberty to marry the boy of her own choice. This Court does not find any ground to entertain the petition.

As such, the present petition is dismissed.
