Arguments heard substantially, during the course of which learned State counsel states that the prosecution would make earnest endeavour to conclude its evidence within a period of six months from the date when the copy of this order is received.

Let it be so done.

The trial Court is directed to give short adjournments so as to see that the evidence of the prosecution is concluded within six months from the date when copy of this order is received in the trial Court.

Faced with such situation, learned Senior counsel for the petitioner(s) states that he may be permitted to withdraw the present petitions granting him liberty to approach the Court again, if need be.

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed for.
