Ravinder Yadav

...Petitioner

Vs.

Sanju Yadav

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. Amit Jain, Advocate for the petitioner.

JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J. (Oral)

This petition under Section 407 read with Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has been filed for transfer of petition bearing No.MNT-168 dated 12.10.2016 registered under Section 125 of Cr.P.C titled as “Smt.Sanju Yadav and another Vs. Sh. Ravinder Yadav” pending adjudication in the Court of learned ACJM Rewari to any other competent Court except Rewari and Narnaul.

It is contended that the father of the respondent is practicing lawyer at Rewari and the petitioner is not able to find a competent lawyer due to influence of his father-in-law. The petitioner has apprehension that he is not likely to get justice at Rewari due to the presence of his father-in-law. He apprehends threat to his life and liberty.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and have gone through the case file.

The mere fact that the father of the respondent is practicing at Rewari, the case cannot be transferred to other competent Court in the absence of any evidence or circumstance on record. However, so far as threat apprehension is concerned there is no evidence on record that the petitioner was ever threatened by the respondent or her father. Cases cannot be transferred on the whims of any party. This Court feels that the apprehension of the petitioner is totally misconceived.

Consequently, no case for transfer of the case is made out and the petition stands dismissed.
