* * * * *

On 19.12.2016, it was stated by respondent No.2, who was present, that he has already retired and has also received all the retiral benefits. Perusal of file shows that no stay was granted in this case in favour of the petitioners. Hence, the present writ petition must have become infructuous. However, as nobody is appearing for the petitioners, the present writ petition is ordered to be consigned to the record with liberty to the petitioners to get it revived, if so desire.
