CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present : Mr. Parshant Vashisth, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. D.S. Virk, DAG Punjab.

Mr. V.K. Kaushal, Advocate, for respondent No.2-complainant.

A.B. Chaudhari, J. (Oral)

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

The petitioners have filed the present petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.259 dated 31.12.2011 registered under Sections 420/467/468 and 471 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Jodhewal, Ludhiana City and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same on the basis of compromise (Annuxure P-2).

Learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned counsel for the complainant state that parties have arrived at a compromise. This Court had made an order dated February 27, 2017 directing the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate to record the statements in view of the compromise that has been arrived at between the parties and verify that whether the same is genuine or not. Now, there is a report received from the District and Sessions Judge, Ludhiana showing that the statements of the parties have been recorded and the compromise that has been arrived at between the parties is genuine and without any pressure, coercion of undue influence.

Looking to the nature of offences registered in the FIR, I think, parties should be allowed to compound/compromise the offences in order to live in peace and harmony, however, subject to the payment of costs by the petitioners in the sum of ₹30,000/- with the office of Commissioner of Police, Ludhiana within a period of 15 days from today, which shall be forfeited to the State government.

In that view of the matter, FIR No.259 dated 31.12.2011 registered under Sections 420/467/468 and 471 of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Jodhewal, Ludhiana City is quashed by way of compounding/compromise along with all consequential proceedings arising there from.

In case of failure of payment of costs as aforesaid, the FIR in question shall stand automatically revived and the trial will continue against the petitioners.

Disposed of.
