The petitioner, who is the mother-in-law of the complainant, seeks the concession of anticipatory bail in FIR No. 121 dated 07.07.2014 registered under Sections 498A, 406, 323, 506, 494, 120B IPC (Sections 376, 316 IPC deleted) at Police Station Hassanpur, District Palwal.

It is submitted that the final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. was filed under Sections 498A, 406, 506, 316, 323, 494, 120B IPC. Initially, the petitioner was afforded the concession of bail and she was regularly appearing before the learned trial Court. However, she was absent on 27.05.2016 due to circumstances beyond her control and nonailable warrants were issued against her. It is submitted that the petitioner has appeared before the learned trial Court pursuant to order dated 01.09.2016 passed by this Court. The petitioner further undertakes to appear on each and every date fixed before the learned trial Court. She is not involved in any other criminal case. It is, thus, prayed that this petition be allowed.

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions from HC Nepal Singh, verifies that the petitioner has appeared before the learned trial Court pursuant to interim order passed by this Court. Allegations attracting the rigours of Section 376 IPC (again added later qua the co-accused) are not against the present petitioner.

There are no allegations on behalf of the State that the petitioner is likely to abscond or that she is likely to dissuade the witnesses from deposing true facts in the Court, if released on bail.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances noted above but without expressing any opinion on the merits of case, it is considered just and expedient to allow this petition. Accordingly, interim bail afforded to the petitioner pursuant to order dated 01.09.2016 be made absolute subject to her furnishing fresh bail bonds and surety to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court.
