Notice of motion was issued. Learned State counsel appeared and contested the instant petition.

From the record, I find that as per the allegations of prosecution, opium weighing 1 kg and 50 grams has been recovered from the present petitioner. As argued, report of FSL has not been received so far which means that charges have not been framed.

The petitioner has been in custody since 23.11.2016. Challan has already been presented. He is now not required for any investigation or interrogation purposes as he is in judicial custody. The trial of the case will take long time. Therefore, no useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of ₹40,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
