

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No.29977 of 2017

Date of Decision : 23.08.2017

Mohit @ Dhor

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDIP AHLUWALIA

Present : Mr. Virender Soni, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Vikas Malik, Deputy Advocate General, Haryana
for the respondent-State.

SUDIP AHLUWALIA, J. (ORAL)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (for short, 'the Cr.P.C.') seeking regular bail in case FIR No.84 dated 21st February, 2017, registered under Sections 323, 325, 379 of the Indian Penal Code (for short, 'the IPC') (subsequently added Sections 379-B, 392, 394, 397 IPC and Section 379 IPC deleted) at Police Station Sampla, District Rohtak.

The petitioner has remained in detention for six months now. Investigation completed.

Admittedly, the petitioner was not named in the FIR, nor any identification by the complainant was procured during investigation. No recovery attributable to the petitioner by way of a memo in connection with this case, could be placed before this Court on behalf of the State, although Ld. counsel appearing for the State submits that the car in question was recovered at the instance of the petitioner during the course of investigation in a different case.

In the given circumstances, there is little justification to keep him in detention for an indefinite period pending trial. He may therefore, be released on bail to the satisfaction of Ld. Area Magistrate/Trial Court, concerned with a further direction to report at the concerned Police Station once a fortnight during pendency of the trial.
