

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-30203-2017

Date of decision:- 31.10.2017

Paramjit Kaur @ Pammi

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S.MADAAN

Present: Mr.Raj Kumar Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms.Samina Dhir, DAG, Punjab.

H.S. MADAAN, J.

This petition for regular bail has been filed by petitioner – Paramjit Kaur @ Pammi – an accused in FIR No.102 dated 1.6.2015, under Section 22 of NDPS Act, registered with Police Station Laddowal, District Ludhiana facing trial before Judge, Special Court, Ludhiana on the allegations that on 1.6.2015, she was found in possession of 115 gms. of intoxicant powder containing salt Alprazolam amounting to commercial quantity. She had moved an application for regular bail, which was dismissed by Judge, Special Court, Ludhiana vide order dated 27.7.2016, as such she had approached this Court requesting for the same relief.

Notice of the petition was given to respondent – State and counsel representing the State has put in appearance.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties besides going through the record and I find that no case for grant of regular bail to petitioner is made out. Admittedly, the contraband said to have been recovered from the petitioner amounts to commercial quantity. Section 37 of the NDPS Act comes in the way, which reads as under:

Offences to be cognizable and non-bailable.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974),—

(a) every offence punishable under this Act shall be cognizable;

(b) no person accused of an offence punishable for 3 [offences under section 19 or section 24 or section 27A and also for offences involving commercial quantity] shall be released on bail or on his own bond unless—

(i) the Public Prosecutor has been given an opportunity to oppose the application for such release, and

(ii) where the Public Prosecutor opposes the application, the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that he is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

(2) The limitations on granting of bail specified in clause (b) of subsection (1) are in addition to the limitations under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) or any other law for the time being in force on granting of bail.

There is no reason available to this Court to record satisfaction that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the petitioner is not guilty of such offence and that he is not likely to commit any offence while on bail.

Even otherwise, the drug trafficking is rising at an alarming rate in this region, especially in the State of Punjab, which has ruined the lives of young men and women. Drug peddlers for a small monetary consideration make the youth to use drugs for a small time excitement/kick. The drug peddlers have successfully destroyed the social fabric of our society and led youth to the wrongful path. Such type of persons need to be dealt with firmly and sternly and no sympathy can be shown to them lest that should prove to be counter productive and result in increase drug trafficking.

Thus, finding no merit in the petition, the same stands dismissed.

However, while parting with the discussion, the trial Court is directed to conclude the the trial expeditiously by giving short adjournments.
