Counsel for respondent No. 2 has circulated an adjournment slip.

Counsel for the State has apprised the Court that out of 8 witnesses, cited by the prosecution, 6 have already been examined, 1 given up and only one witness remains to be examined. The case is now fixed for 18.3.2017 for examination of the said witness. The prosecution shall ensure presence of the witness before the trial court on that date.

In view of the above, petition stands disposed of without examining it on merits with liberty to the petitioners to raise all available pleas before the trial court.

The petitioners may file an application seeking exemption from personal appearance and the same shall be decided by the court, in accordance with law, but taking a sympathetic view in the light of fact that petitioner No. 1 Joginder Singh is stated to be 75 years old.
