The petitioner wants an FIR to be registered against private respondents. It is stated that the police has carried out the investigation, but the challan is not being yet presented in the Court.

In these circumstances, let the Senior Superintendent of Police, Hoshiarpur (respondent No. 2) to look into the matter. If even after that, the police does not register the FIR, the petitioner can always file a complaint before the learned Illaqa Magistrate with appropriate relief and can summon the investigation record to substantiate his complaint.
