...Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

Present: Mr. Viney Puri, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Ms. Anju Arora, Addl. A.G., Punjab.

Jitendra Chauhan, J. (Oral)

By filing the present petition under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, the petitioner has sought anticipatory bail in FIR No.108 dated 30.05.2017, registered under Section 306 read with section 34 of IPC, at Police Station Adampur, Jalandhar.

It is contended that in pursuance of order dated 20.09.2017, the petitioner has joined the investigation. Co-accused, Jasvir Kaur and Sandeep Singh have already been admitted to bail by the trial Court.

On the other hand, the learned State counsel, on instructions submits that though the petitioner has joined the investigation, however, there are specific allegations against the petitioner.

Heard.

The deceased allegedly fed up with the harassment meted out at her matrimonial home was forced to stay with her parents for about one year in the year 2013-14. She could be rehabilitated at the matrimonial home with the intervention of the panchayat. There are specific allegations of beatings and maltreatment and ignoring the deceased on account of petitioner's extra marital relations with co-accused, Jasvir Kaur. The Court feels that the petitioner being husband of deceased cannot be said to be at par with co-accused, Jasvir Kaur. Keeping in view the above, this Court is not inclined to accept the prayer made in the present petition, at this stage.

Dismissed.

Anything said herein above shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
