Kuldip Singh, J. (Oral)

Petitioner claims that she is widow lady and she apprehends threat to her life and liberty from respondent nos.3 to 7 on account of some dispute regarding land.

Reply has been filed by respondent nos.1 and 2. The petitioner claims that SHO of the area was conniving with them. SHO has since been transferred. Petitioner has similar grouse against the present SHO also.

In the circumstances, the present petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to move a formal application before Senior Superintendent of Police, SBS Nagar, who shall look into the grievance of the petitioner. Senior Superintendent of Police is directed to assess threat perception to the life and liberty of the petitioner and if any threat is found, take necessary corrective measures.
