IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-34914-2017

Date of Decision:19.09.2017

Pargat Singh

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE INDERJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. P.K.S.Phoolka, Advocate, for the petitioner.

INDERJIT SINGH, J.

Petitioner-Pargat Singh has filed this petition under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for grant of anticipatory bail in case FIR No.88 dated 11.08.2017, registered at Police Station Nandgarh, District Bathinda, under Sections 379 and 411 of the Indian Penal Code.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and have gone through the record.

From the record, I find that FIR, in the present case, has been registered on the basis of secret information. The petitioner is named in the FIR. As per the allegations, the present petitioner alongwith others formed a gang, who steal computer LED, gas cylinder etc. from Anganwari Centre. As per the prosecution version, 14 LCDs, gas cylinder, key boards, CPU etc. have already been recovered from the co-accused, who has also named the present petitioner and disclosed that the petitioner is in possession of 5 stolen LCDs.

CRM-M-34914-2017

Keeping in view the nature and gravity of the offence and in view of the facts that the petitioner is required for custodial interrogation and that recovery is to be effected from him, I do not find it a fit case where the petitioner is entitled to the benefit of anticipatory bail.

Therefore, finding no merit in the present petition, the same is dismissed.
