Custody certificate filed in Court today and same is taken on record.

Heard. The lower Court file perused.

Revisionist was driving a three wheeler rashly and negligently and hit the round about, as a result of which, occupants of three wheeler were injured. As a result of injury, right hand of one of the passengers, namely, Shanti, was amputated from wrist. Another passenger Amar Singh also suffered injuries including fracture on the leg. The witnesses have supported the prosecution case. There is no infirmity or perversity in the judgments of both the Courts below. Keeping in view the nature of injuries, there is no ground to reduce the sentence as well. Let revisionist be rearrested and committed to jail to undergo the remaining part of sentence. Hence, revision is dismissed.
