

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No.37838 of 2017
Date of Decision : 09.10.2017

Priyanka Rani and another

.....Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDIP AHLUWALIA

Present : Mr. Deepak Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioners.

SUDIP AHLUWALIA, J. (ORAL)

Both the petitioners are present in person and identified by their counsel. They seek protection of their life and liberty by contending that both of them having attained the age of majority, have married each other against the wishes of their respective family members respondent Nos.4 to 7, and so seek appropriate protection from the authorities. They submitted a representation (Annexure P-7) in this regard to the Senior Superintendent of Police, Bathinda on 5th October, 2017, but are still apprehensive about their security in view of the apparent inaction and alleged clout of their family members-respondents.

2. Both of them do appear to have crossed the age of majority as seen from the copies of documents filed and have married each, other in support of which, Marriage Certificate issued by “Rama Krishana Mandir, Sector 19, Chandigarh” and photographs (Annexures P-3 and P-4) have been placed on record.

3. For the aforesaid reasons, this appears to be a fit case for this Court to invoke the inherent powers under Section 482 of the Cr.P.C. and in view of the mandate contained in Article 21 of the Constitution of India to protect the citizen's right to life and liberty.

4. Thus the Senior Superintendent of Police, Bathinda is directed to consider the representation dated 5th October, 2017 (Annexure P-7) and take appropriate steps to ensure that no harm is caused to the life and liberty of the petitioners.

5. At this stage, Mr. Yashpal Thakur, Advocate puts in appearance and filed his Power of Attorney on behalf of respondent No.4 and submits that his client has no objection to the marriage of the petitioners.

6. It is nevertheless clarified that this order is issued only on the premise that the petitioners have crossed the age of majority as seen from the documents placed on record being Matriculation Certificate of petitioner No.1 and Aadhar Card of petitioner No.2. This would not ipso facto amount to granting any seal of approval on the legality of their marriage which essentially would come in the domain of the concerned Matrimonial Courts. Further, they would not be entitled for any protection against their arrest or continuance of any criminal proceedings, if otherwise, found to be involved in commission of any cognizable offence(s).

7. The petition is disposed off with the above direction.
