

IOIN-RFA-223 and 224-2001

RFA Nos.223 and 224 of 2001 were disposed of on July 24, 2017, in terms of the detailed judgment of an even date, rendered in RFA No.2416 of 2000, “Shiv Kumar and others vs. Haryana State and others”, vide which the compensation awarded to the claimant-landowners was enhanced by this Court.

The matter has again been placed before this Court by the Registry, for, vide order dated October 09,2001, this Court, while admitting the appeal had stayed the execution of the impugned award, subject to a condition that the appellants shall deposit 50% of the enhanced compensation, with the executing Court, which was to be disbursed to the claimants without furnishing any security. Whereas, the balance 50% was ordered to be deposited, in the form of FDR, with the State Bank of Patiala, High Court Branch, through Registrar of this Court. And, now, since the appeals have been finally decided, it is reported that the requisite amount in the shape of FDR No.146558 dated 26.12.2001, which is lying deposited be permitted to be transmitted to the executing Court.

For, the said appeals were dismissed by this Court, vide order and judgment dated 24.07.2017, the permission prayed for is granted and the amount lying deposited in the form of an FDR with the State Bank of Patiala, High Court Branch, be transferred to the executing Court, which shall be disbursed to the rightful claimants, in accordance with law.
