None for the complainant.

JITENDRA CHAUHAN.J.(ORAL)

The present petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C seeking anticipatory bail in case FIR No.04 dated 11.01.2017, registered under Section 306 IPC at Police Station Sardulgarh, District Mansa.

It is contended that no offence whatsoever is made out against the petitioner. The petitioner has no concern with the offence in question. He has been falsely implicated in the present FIR.

On the other hand, the learned State counsel submits that due to the harassment caused by the petitioner, the victim was compelled to take the extreme step of committing suicide.

Heard.

It is to be noticed that after investigation, it has come on record that on the relevant date, the petitioner had made 125 calls to the deceased in the late hours of night. No explanation as to why such a huge number of calls were made to the deceased. The call details stand proved on record. Even if the deceased was known to the petitioner, this is no ground for making such a huge number of calls at the dead of night and this act of the petitioner itself is a circumstance against him.

No case for grant of concession of anticipatory bail is made out.

Consequently, the petition is dismissed.

Anything said herein above shall not be construed as an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
