DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

Through the present petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C., the petitioner seeks regular bail in FIR No.104 dated 26.05.2014, registered under Section 22(61) of NDPS Act, 1985, at Police Station Sadar Jalalabad, District Fazilka.

As per the FIR, the police party on regular patrol duty found a person putting something in a plastic bag who after seeing the police party threw the plastic bag and attempted to flee. He was, however, apprehended and on questioning he disclosed his name as Wazir Singh-petitioner. The plastic bag allegedly thrown by the petitioner was recovered by the police party which on inspection was found to contain 540 tablets which contained narcotics.

On instructions from Head Constable Randhir Singh, learned State counsel submits that all but one of the prosecution witnesses have already been examined and the remaining witness would be examined on the next date before the trial Court i.e. 02.02.2017.

In view of the above, at the fag end of the trial, I am not inclined to grant regular bail in the present case in which there are serious allegations against the petitioner of having caught with narcotics.

Dismissed.

However, directions are issued to the prosecution to examine the remaining witness on the next date before the trial Court, which is stated to be 02.02.2017.

Nothing observed herein above shall be considered to be an expression of opinion by this Court on the merits of the case.
