Power of Attorney on behalf of respondents No.1 and 2 has been filed today.

Present revision petition has been filed by the accused/petitioners against the judgment of conviction and the order of sentence dated 08.03.2006 passed by the Court of learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Jagraon convicting the petitioners under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act and sentencing them to undergo rigorous imprisonment for nine months and to pay fine of ₹4,00,000/- i.e. amount involved in the cheques in equal shares out of which an amount of ₹3,00,000/- shall be paid to the complainant as compensation under Section 357(3) Cr.P.C. and in default of payment of fine, they shall further undergo S.I. for three months, which conviction and sentence was confirmed in appeal by learned Sessions Judge, Ludhiana, vide judgment dated 08.08.2012. Aggrieved by the judgments of the Courts below, the petitioners have come up in revision.

It has been stated by the parties that the present dispute has been settled, in which regard, statements of the parties have been recorded.

It has been stated by Mr.M.P.Brar, District Manager, MARKFED, Ludhiana – respondents No.1 and 2 that MARKFED has received a sum of ₹1,11,61,548/- from the petitioners in full and final settlement of the claim and, hence, MARKFED has no objection if the present revision petition is accepted and the impugned judgments passed by the Courts below are set aside and the petitioners are acquitted in this case. Learned counsel for respondents No.1 and 2 has also placed on record an affidavit on behalf of MARKFED in this regard, which is Mark 'A'.

In view of the statements of the parties, the present revision petition is accepted and the impugned judgments of conviction and sentence passed by the Courts below are set aside and the petitioners are acquitted of the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act.
