CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present: Mr. Ashish Verma, Advocate for the petitioner(s).

Mrs. Rajni Gupta, Addl. AG Punjab.

Mr. L.S. Mann, Advocate for respondent No.2.

A.B. CHAUDHARI, J (Oral)

Both these petitions are being disposed of by this common order.

Heard learned counsel for the rival parties.

These are two petitions seeking cancellation of orders granting bail to the accused persons. Challan has been filed. The offences are triable by the Magistrate. The date of incident is 15.05.2013. They have been released on bail vide order dated 21.04.2014.

Learned counsel for complainant-respondent No.2 in both these cases submits that the trial Court should not have been granted bail in serious matters, wherein, the petitioner has been cheated put to wrongful loss to a very big extent.

In my opinion, looking to the period that has passed and in the absence of violation of any condition or any overt act on the part of the accused persons-respondent No.2 and non-tampering of evidence, it would be too late in the day to interfere with the order granting bail to the accused persons. Therefore, following order is passed:-

ORDER

- (i) Both these petitions are not being entertained and thus, stand dismissed;
- (ii) Trial Court is directed to expedite the trial and complete the same within one year from today.
