AT CHANDIGARH.

206

CRM-M-47787-2017

Date of Decision: 20.12.2017.

Gursewak Singh @ Manga and another

...Petitioners.

Versus

State of Punjab

....Respondent.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMENDRA JAIN

Present: Mr. Shiv Charan Bhola, Advocate for the petitioners.

Ms. Bhavna Gupta, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab.

Ramendra Jain, J.(Oral)

Through this petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C., prayer has been made for grant of regular bail to petitioners Gursewak Singh @ Manga and Raj Kumar @ Moti in case F.I.R. No.49 dated 17.05.2017 registered under Section 382 read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code (Sections 392, 411, 201 IPC added lateron), at Police Station Sadar, Rupnagar, District Rupnagar.

According to the prosecution, the petitioners alongwith their one accomplice, snatched a purse containing Rs.8000/- cash and two cell phones from the complainant and vanished with the same.

Learned counsel inter-alia contends that the petitioners are in custody since last seven months. Conclusion of trial may take a long time and no useful purpose would be served by detaining the petitioners further

On the other hand, learned State counsel vehemently opposed grant of regular bail to the petitioners submitting that the petitioners are facing trial in two more cases of similar nature. They are the habitual offenders and thus, do not deserve the concession of bail. She has filed the custody certificate which is taken on record.

Considering over all facts and circumstances, but without commenting anything on the merits, the petition is allowed and the petitioners are granted regular bail, during the trial, subject to their furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
